

cash order as well as Lapin, and it is safe to send - is deeply impressed with the belief that such a decision involves as much as your life is worth. May God give you wisdom rightly to decide so serious a question. is the prayer of Your affectionate brother (Stewart Ruskawa

Because I have not made a furnish of thanks, in the matter of the $50 you will not think I feel none. I found my dear ones well, and hope yours may be so by this time.
Love to them — I suppose you can use the Doctor subject of Capt. Fisk's atrocities. —

Please tell Mr. Tappan if you see him, that I will very much obliged if he will let me know the nature of the communications from Mr. Chase — However I will visit him tomorrow more fully than I can communicate through you now, and may as well spare you trouble in the matter.

To make up your mind to go to London. My mind

C. S. Renshaw

Philadelphia July 2.

Thursday 4th of Pm

75-

My dear Brother.

On my arrival I found a letter from Mr. Scudder of N. York, with the enclosed, which I send you. Please accept the note of hand.

I was an hour and a half too soon; the fog kept the boat at the pier till 7 o'clock. I find I brought the Bapt. Herald with me. I will do better than to leave it; I will on my return give you an article on the